

I am a single father living in Northern California who is terribly concerned about the future of democracy in this country. How can we expect have a healthy public discourse when Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

As administrators of the F.C.C. who are fully aware that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Please do what you can to stop Sinclair from distorting the national narrative to fit their interests.
Thank you, Sean Kennedy
